Roseville College | An Anglican School For Girls

APPOINTMENT OF A NEW PRINCIPAL

After an extensive search, it is with much pleasure that we announce the appointment of Mrs Megan Krimmer M.Ed., B.A., Dip. Ed., M.A.C.E. as the new Principal of Roseville College, commencing Term 4, 2011.

Mrs Krimmer has been an educator for over 20 years and has extensive experience in educational leadership, pastoral care, curriculum development, co-curricular activities and service learning. She is currently the Director of Curriculum at Abbotsleigh and has an educational understanding and appreciation of girls from Pre-Kindergarten to Year 12. She has a love and passion for Roseville College, having taught at Roseville for many years, holding positions as classroom teacher, Year Adviser and Head of the History Department. Her experience at Roseville was further enriched when her daughters attended the school.

In addition to her roles in schools, and her experience as a parent at Roseville, Mrs Krimmer has broad experience in the wider educational community. She was awarded a Masters of Education through the University of Sydney for her research into pastoral care systems and curriculum in independent girls' schools. She has been the convenor of the AIS History Committee, participated in Board of Studies advisory panels and was Deputy Chair of the Modern History Board Curriculum Committee responsible for re-writing the current Modern History syllabus.

Mrs Krimmer is a dynamic educational leader with the ability to lead, inspire and motivate both staff and students.

She brings the skills and passion to lead Roseville College in its next phase of development as a vibrant, caring and academically robust Christian learning community.

On behalf of the whole school community, we congratulate Mrs Krimmer on her appointment and look forward to welcoming her to Roseville College.
