Dear parents and members of the Roseville College Community,

It is with great pleasure that I announce on behalf of the College Council that Ms Deb Magill will be the 10th Principal of Roseville College.

After an exhaustive search that considered candidates from around Australia, Ms Magill was selected by the College Council and the Board of the Anglican Schools Corporation as Roseville's next leader. Ms Magill presented as the stand-out leader among an exceptional field of candidates.

Ms Magill has over 20 years' experience as an educator and leader in girls', co-educational and boys' schools. Having been at the College for the past six years, Ms Magill has a rich understanding of Roseville's culture, girls and parents. Many of you will already know Ms Magill as she has served across the College in both the Junior and Senior Schools and she is currently the Director of Learning and a senior member of the College's executive team.

Passionate about girls' education, Ms Magill holds a Master of Education and is a member of the Australian College of Educators and the Australian Council of Educational Leaders. Having a clear plan to see both students and staff excel, Ms Magill has an exceptional understanding of how girls learn and she has been instrumental in augmenting the College's academic program. She also has a compassionate heart for the welfare of the girls under her care. Additionally, in the teaching community Ms Magill is highly regarded as a leader in education and learning.

Ms Magill is a strong and committed Christian and is an active member of her local Anglican Church. She is married to John and they have two school aged children.

The College Council shares a real sense of excitement about the appointment of Ms Magill, as she takes on this role at a time when the College is poised to commence the next phase of its development.

Over the coming months Ms Magill will work closely with Mrs Krimmer to ensure a smooth transition for the College.

Please join me in welcoming Ms Magill as Roseville College's next Principal, and pray with me for God's blessing on Ms Magill as she prepares to lead the College in 2017.

Yours sincerely,

David Minty
Chair, Roseville College Council
