Uniform Rules

Please find enclosed care instructions and fittings advice for you to use to keep longevity of your uniform items. Attached is also the rules of uniform wear. Please do read to ensure correct care and wear of your uniform.

Arriving and Departing School Grounds

- Full uniform should be worn when coming to and from school, regardless of transport, and at official school events.
- All items of clothing and belongings should be clearly named.
- Both summer and winter uniforms should be knee-length.
- Jumpers without blazers must not be worn outside school.
- Blazers must be worn with the winter uniform when outside school at all time.
- Panama Hats are worn during term 1 and term 4 only.
- Standard black, leather, lace up, flat heeled shoes with no coloured stitching are the only acceptable footwear with uniform. Heels must be no higher than 2 ½cms.
- No make-up, nail polish or jewellery, of any description may be worn, apart from a simple wrist watch.
- If students wish to have their ears pierced before commencing the school year, they should allow adequate time for the hole to heal. Clear plastic studs are NOT permitted. Earrings are only permitted on girls in Year 7 and up.
- Hair should be tied up neatly, if shoulder length or longer, using the regulation hair accessories available at the Uniform Store.
- All hair elastics are to be covered with a maroon, blue or white ribbon. Girls are to retain their natural hair colour and gel, hairspray, multiple braiding, fancy bows, clips or combs are not allowed.
- Badges other than the official school badges are not permitted to be worn, the only exception being badges purchased for a school sanctioned charity, which may be worn for a limited time. School badges such as our house badge and the school crest badge should be affixed to the left side of your blazer. As you collect Activity badges, these will also be pinned to the left side.
- Sports Uniform is not to be worn to or from school. We suggest you keep your sports uniform in your sports bag in your locker at school, and take home for washing on the weekend.
