Uniform Rules

The following pages include care instructions and fitting advice for you to use to ensure longevity of your uniform items. Attached also are the rules of uniform wear. Please read to ensure correct care and wear of your uniform.

Arriving and Departing School Grounds

- Full uniform should be worn when coming to and from school, regardless of transport, and at official school events.
- In some cases the student will attend School wearing their sports uniform; the days will be advised by the School and shouldn't be worn otherwise.
- All items of clothing and belongings should be clearly named.
- Both summer and winter uniforms should be knee-length.
- Jumpers without blazers must not be worn outside school.
- Blazers must be worn with the winter uniform when outside school at all time.
- Panama hats are worn during Term 1 and Term 4 only.
- Standard black, leather, lace up, flat heeled shoes with no coloured stitching or buckle mary-jane style shoes, no velcro fastening.
- No make-up, nail polish or jewellery, of any description may be worn, apart from a simple wrist watch.
- Earrings are only permitted on girls in Year 7 and up.
- Hair should be tied up neatly, if shoulder length or longer, using the regulation hair accessories available at the Uniform Store.
- All hair elastics are to be covered with a maroon, blue or white ribbon. Girls are to retain their natural hair colour. Gel, hairspray, multiple braiding, fancy bows, clips or combs are not allowed.
- Badges other than the official school badges are not permitted to be worn, the only exception being badges purchased for a school sanctioned charity, which may be worn for a limited time. School badges such as our House badge and the School Crest badge should be affixed to the left side of your blazer. As you collect Activity badges, these will also be pinned to the left side.
