How to Wear the Uniform

The following pages include care instructions and fitting advice for you to use to ensure longevity of your uniform items. Attached also are the rules of uniform wear. Please do read to ensure correct care and wear of your uniform.

Arriving and departing School grounds

- Full uniform should be worn when coming to and from school, regardless of transport, and at official school events.
- All items of clothing and belongings should be clearly named.
- Skirt and dress items should be knee-length.
- Earrings or jewellery are not permitted.
- Hair should be tied up neatly, if shoulder length or longer, using the regulation hair accessories available at the Uniform Store.
- All hair elastics and hair accessories to be purchased from the Uniform Store. Fancy bows, clips or combs are not allowed.
- Badges other than the official school badges are not permitted to be worn, the only exception being badges purchased for a school sanctioned charity, which may be worn for a limited time.
- No visible undergarments to be worn.
- If undershirts are worn they must be navy blue and no other colour and not visible.
- A spare set of clothing is required for each student in a wet bag daily including underwear, socks and set of uniform.
- A raincoat and gumboots are required to be left at school.
- Only Roseville College uniform is permitted to be worn.
